To Whomsoever It May Concern

It gives me pleasure to recommend Mr Saurabh Shah, Chief Executive Officer of Universal Business & Corporate Services Centre, who has been associated with MIT World Peace University, Pune, in matters relating to outreach, partnerships, and institutional collaborations.

Over the course of our association, Mr Saurabh Shah has demonstrated a highly positive attitude towards work and an admirable ability to approach challenges with clarity, composure, and commitment. His professional conduct reflects sincerity, integrity, and a solutions-oriented mindset, qualities that are increasingly valuable in today's dynamic professional environment.

One of Mr Shah's notable strengths is his persuasive communication ability combined with a balanced and honest approach in all his dealings. He is courteous in his professional interactions.

I am confident that Mr Saurabh Shah will continue to bring value to organizations and institutions with whom he associates in the future. I wish him success in all his professional endeavours and would recommend him for assignments and engagements requiring relationship-building, communication, coordination, and strategic outreach.

With best wishes,

Dr Rahul V Karad
